Teach for UCSF Certificate Program

Participant Portal

Follow a path through the UCSF Educational Skills Workshops to develop your teaching skills and receive a Teach for UCSF certificate in recognition of your achievement. The program is popular with faculty, residents, fellows, and volunteer clinical professors at UCSF and affiliated teaching sites.

Certificate completion is based on the program at the time of enrollment. Certificate curricula are constantly evolving. New requirements are applicable only to those enrolling later.

Enrollees can use this portal to:

- Find upcoming workshops
- Complete missed skills assessments
- Track your own progress
- See certificate objectives and requirements
- Compare certificate tracks

See details for each certificate:

- General Teaching
- Clinical Teaching
- Simulation Teaching
- Interprofessional Teaching
- Teaching Quality Improvement and Patient Safety (QI/PS)
- Education Leadership
- Teaching for Equity and Inclusion
- Education Research (in development)

Teach for UCSF Links:

- Enroll in one or more certificates
- Ask a question
- Certificate Completion Checklists
- Request a transcript
- Program Expectations, Eligibility, and Policies
- Lists of certificates granted
- Accelerated Path opportunities
  http://tiny.ucsf.edu/accelerated
- Link to this page:
  http://tiny.ucsf.edu/T4UCSF

To get started, click on a track below:
Guidelines

Some details to keep in mind:

- We recommend finishing all requirements in 2-4 years.
- Be sure to register for workshops so you will get the reminder to attend. Also, workshops with too few sign-ups risk being cancelled.
- Add workshops to your calendar as you sign up.
- Remember to sign in to verify attendance.
- Complete and submit the required skills assessment during the workshop.
- Use the Progress-Tracking Worksheet to keep track of workshops you have attended.
- Read more about program expectations here: Teach for UCSF

Direct questions about the program to Victoria Ruddick.

Thank you for your interest in improving your teaching. Please let others know about the Teach for UCSF program.