Assessment and Education Research Skills (AERS)

Assessment and Education Research Skills Series

Workshops related to skills used in learner assessment, program evaluation, and education research data collection, analysis, and dissemination.

Assessment

- Constructing an Assessment Scale
- Defining and Assessing Entrustable Professional Activities
- Assessment for Learning
- Down and Dirty Details for Designing a Portfolio
- EPAs as a Framework for Assessment across the Continuum
- Peer Assessment of Teaching: Teaching Observation Program (TOP) Training
- Peer Assessment of Interprofessional Teaching: Interprofessional Teaching Observation Program (ITOP) Training
- Critical Reflection
- Test Development
- UCSF Portfolios: Why is everyone talking about them? What works and what doesn’t?
- Using Entrustable Professional Activities in Health Professions Educational Assessment
- Writing Effective Narrative Evaluations

Research

- Authorship in Academia: Dealing with Ethical and Professional Challenges
- Building Your Information Landscape
- Concept Mapping
- Designing Surveys
- Educational Scholarship: Reading and Writing in Medical Education
- Exploring Funding Strategies for Medical Education Research
- Focus Groups for Educational Research and Evaluation
- Program Evaluation Design Intensive
- Qualitative Analysis
- Qualitative Methods and Data Collection
- Reviewing Education Abstracts
- Scholarly Writing Workshop
- The Art and Craft of Op-Eds and Narrative Essays: A Workshop
- Tips for Education Abstract Writing (coming soon)
- Workplace Learning